

It already feels like a mini media monopoly here in Cincinnati, Ohio, where CLEAR CHANNEL controls EIGHT of the local stations!

What's happening to the widely held philosophy "Variety is the Spice of Life!"?

The vote on media consolidation scheduled for Monday, June 2, 2003 should be postponed to accommodate a democratic debate on this very important issue which, until recently, has received very little Public attention.